PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

In Q2, our dedication to building a solid community takes center stage. It's about fostering more profound connections with you, our valued members, and ensuring your financial well-being.

Our commitment to community means providing personalized financial products and services that cater to your unique needs. We strive to make banking easy, with a friendly and personal touch that sets us apart, but we're focused on more than just finances. We're involved in our community. We're passionate about supporting local causes, promoting financial health, and providing growth opportunities. We believe in making a real difference together.

Please take a moment to read our quarterly newsletter to find valuable insights and stay updated with the latest news from your favorite credit union! Thank you for being a vital part of our community and trusting us with your financial needs. We're committed to helping you achieve financial success and creating a stronger community.

Doris Richardson, President and CEO

ENJOY HASSLE-FREE BANKING!

Unlock the freedom of our checking account! No monthly service charge, unlimited check writing, overdraft protection, courtesy pay protection, and a Visa Check Card for seamless transactions.

UNLOCK THE POWER OF FAMILY BONDS.

Joining forces with family members to become part of BRCPEFCU is more than just a financial decision. It's a commitment to building a stronger, more resilient community where every member's success contributes to the greater good.

Here's why referring your family members to join is a win-win for everyone:

1. Inviting your family to join provides them access to a comprehensive range of financial services and resources tailored to their needs.
2. By expanding our membership through your referrals, we can invest more in local initiatives, support small businesses, and create opportunities for everyone to thrive.
3. They will share the convenience of managing their accounts anytime, anywhere, with our intuitive online and mobile banking platforms.

When you refer your loved ones to join, you unlock the power of family bonds and build a brighter future for future generations.
